COURSE DESCRIPTION

The purpose of this online course is to familiarize new students, faculty, and staff with fundamental tenets of artificial intelligence. Artificial Intelligence is rapidly changing every profession. Today's workforce needs more than the ability to use AI tools—they need to understand how AI works, how to create with it, and how to use it responsibly.

This self-paced, noncredit course introduces the essential concepts of Artificial Intelligence in an engaging, hands-on format. Participants will learn the differences between Machine Learning, Deep Learning, Foundation Models, Large Language Models, Generative AI, and Agentic AI while gaining practical experience using modern AI tools.

Throughout the course, learners will explore AWS AI technologies—including PartyRock, Bedrock, SageMaker, and Amazon Q—to understand how organizations build and deploy trustworthy AI solutions. Upon successful completion, participants earn a digital badge recognizing fundamental AI literacy.

COURSE OBJECTIVES / STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

Upon successful completion of this course, participants will be able to:

- Explain why AI literacy is becoming essential across every career field.
- Differentiate between AI, Machine Learning, Deep Learning, Foundation Models, LLMs, Generative AI, and Agentic AI.
- Identify workplace applications of AI across multiple industries.
- Write effective prompts using a structured prompting framework.
- Recognize hallucinations, bias, toxicity, privacy risks, and other responsible AI concerns.
- Compare outputs generated by multiple AI models.
- Apply responsible AI principles in workplace scenarios.

COURSE STRUCTURE & CLASS FORMAT

The following instructional strategies and methods will be used to achieve the learning objectives:

1. Textual lessons and video presentations
2. Interactive Quizzes
3. Hands-on project

TITLE IX

Title IX is a federal civil rights law that was part of the Educational Amendments Act of 1972. This provision affirms that “no person in the United States shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from participation in, be denied benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any educational program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance.”

Title IX protects all students, faculty, and staff from sex-based discrimination and harassment. The Talladega College campus has a zero-tolerance policy for all forms of sexual harassment, sexual violence, gender-based discrimination and harassment, dating and domestic violence, and stalking. All employees of Talladega College are mandated reporters of all Title IX violations.
